Would someone be willing to read the Scripture passage from this morning?

- What do you find striking in the passages or story?
- How do you think the first readers or the people involved the story felt? How would you have reacted? What do we learn about God in this passage or story? What do we learn about human beings in this passage or story?
- As you reflect on Sunday's message, what one principle or insight stands out as being particularly helpful, encouraging, insightful, or challenging?
- Was there any one thing that you made you think? What was it and why?
- When and where do you struggle the most with the issue(s) this sermon raised?
- If you were to incorporate the teaching from this sermon and its related Scriptures into your own life, how would your life be different next week? next year?
- As you think about the people you've been praying for to trust in Jesus, what in this sermon and passage might be beneficial to pass along?
